

Web Based Trainers

Wide Open Resource for Learning and Development

Newsletter - Issue no. 1 / 9.01.2006

Content

: Foreword
: Courses
: Events
: News

Education and Culture
Leonardo da Vinci

Subscribe

Foreword

Unsubscribe

In this issue of the WBT WORLD newsletter we are going to present two courses: "Educational Software", developed by Elite Training & Development (Romania), and "Using the Internet and Web Site Management", developed by General Foundation of the Valladolid University (Spain), Ionian Technologies Ltd. (Greece), and University Transilvania of Brasov (Romania). At the same time, the newsletter includes news about project, and data regarding scientific events in the field of e-learning.

Courses

For this issue...

- Educational Software - developed by Elite Training & Development (Romania)

This course has the following main objectives: to present the main educational software used in web-based distance learning and presently available on the market (classification criteria, main characteristics, advantages and disadvantages), to select educational software according to specific needs, and to use educational software from Macromedia.

Click here for details

- Using the Internet and Web Site Management - developed by General Foundation of the Valladolid University (Spain), Ionian Technologies Ltd. (Greece), and University Transilvania of Brasov (Romania)

This course has the following main objectives: to present a general overview of the Internet and the digital age, to know which are the different possibilities and the necessary equipment to have access to the Internet and to show the different and most common tools that are used in the Internet, to provide a basic understanding of the use of the web file manager, chat, mailing lists, forum, weblogs, and to present principles and tools for hosting, publishing, promoting and collect visitor data.

Click here for details

Events

- New Technologies for Teachers, Florence, Italy, 23-28 January 2006

The training course "New Technologies for teachers" (ref. no. IT-2006-014 in the Grundtvig - Comenius Course Database) aims to develop teachers' and trainers' skills in using new technologies as support instruments for the training's process. The course will take place in Florence, Italy, between 23-28/01/2006, and it is organized by Pixel Associazione.

Click here for details

- Online Educa Madrid, Madrid, Spain, 17-19 May 2006

Sixth edition of the event "Online Educa Madrid" will take place from 17th to 19th of May at the Hotel Auditorium in Madrid. Top responsible persons from e-learning industries from Europe and Latin America will meet altogether with Governmental and Educational Policy makers authorities from Universities and another educational bodies. Online Educa Madrid is the ideal place to know the latest tendencies and innovations on Virtual learning and development of business.

Click here for details

CESNET 2006 Conference, Prague, Czech Republic, 6-8 March 2006

At the occasions of its 10th anniversary, CESNET decided to organise an international research conference. This way, we intend to start a tradition of regular (annual or bi-annual) conferences concentrating on advances in high-speed communication technologies, Grids, related middleware, and their sophisticated applications. The major conference topics are (follow the links for detailed description): optical networks, IP version 6, network middleware, monitoring, grids, and applications.

Click here for details

WBT WORLD News

- WBT Final Meeting

On December 15-17th, 2005, was organized in Bucharest the final transnational meeting of the WBT WORLD project, with the participation of all project partners. The meeting agenda included: the evaluation of the stage report, the current status of WBT WORLD activities and preparing the final project report.

:: VISIT OUR WEB PAGE

For questions, comments and suggests, please CONTACT US

Editor-in-Chief,
Dr. Catalin ALEXANDRU